Square Enix continues to grow and expand its global business operations in offline games, online games, mobile phone content, and publishing at an ever-accelerating pace.

The purpose of this website renovation is to heighten the quality of the company’s presence by unifying domain names and web design across the Square Enix Group as its business operations expand in the global marketplace. Additionally, by ensuring an easy-to-use design, Square Enix aims to provide an environment that facilitates smooth access to any information its users desire.

Square Enix will continue to provide the world with information regarding its corporate activities in a prompt and clear manner.
